CODE OF CONDUCT

To maintain the high standard of conduct expected of the Council with respect to the management of its own affairs and to enable the Workforce Development Area to continue to offer services required by those in need, the Workforce Development Council adopts the following Code of Conduct applicable to all volunteers.

No Council member shall:

- (1) authorize the use of or use for the benefit or advantage of any person, the name, endorsement, services, or property of the Workforce Development Area, except in conformance with WIOA policy;
- (2) accept or seek on behalf of himself or any other person any financial advantage or gain of other than nominal value offered because of the volunteer member's Council affiliation;
- (3) publicly utilize any Council affiliation in connection with partisan politics, religious matters or to take position on any issue which is not in conformity with the position of the Council;
- (4) disclose any confidential Workforce Development Council information that is available solely because of the volunteer member's affiliation with the Council to any person not authorized to receive such information or use to the disadvantage of the Workforce Development Area any such confidential information, without the express authorization of the Workforce Development Council;
- (5) no member shall take any action which results in a direct or indirect conflict of interest as later described;
- (6) behave in a manner which is contrary to the best interests of the Workforce Development Council.

1. Direct and In-direct Conflict of Interest

- A. A "Direct Conflict of Interest" arises when a WDC member or the immediate family of a WDC member seeks, obtains, or negotiates a financial agreement between the WDC and any entity in which that WDC member, or their immediate family, has a financial interest.

When a direct conflict of interest arises through submission of a proposal by an entity in which the WDC member or their immediate family has a financial interest, in addition to declaring the conflict and abstaining from voting and improper participation, the WDC member shall take an immediate leave of absence from the WDC. The leave of absence shall result in automatic resignation from the WDC if the WDC member receives a contract which results in a direct conflict of interest, or if the leave of absence lasts longer than 90 calendar days. The leave of absence shall end with full reinstatement to WDC membership and any WDC office or committee position if the proposal giving rise to the direct conflict is withdrawn or is not funded by the WDC prior to resignation.

- B. An “Indirect Conflict of Interest” arises when the situation involves a public or non-profit organization rather than a for-profit entity. If the WDC member or their immediate family, work for or is on the Board of a public or non-profit entity which seeks or obtains or negotiates any financial agreement with the WDC, an in-direct conflict of interest is created.
- C. An indirect conflict of interest is also created when a WDC member or their immediate family or any organization in which they have a financial interest, or any public or non-profit organization for which they work or on whose board they sit, sells $25,000 or more in goods or services to any entity which seeks, obtains, or negotiates a contract with the WDC.

“Financial interest” means ownership of any interest from which one would be entitled to receive money or holding a position in a business such as an officer, director, trustee, partner, employee, or the like or holding any position of management. (Article 12-Ethics in Public Contracting, American Bar Association Model Procurement Code.) One cannot hold a financial interest in a public or non-profit organization.

“Immediate family” shall be defined in accordance with WAC CH. 356-18-p 5 and limited to: spouse, son, daughter, grandchild, foster child, son-in-law, or daughter-in-law, grandparent, parent, brother, sister, niece, nephew, aunt, uncle, first cousin, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law.

2. Declaration of a Conflict of Interest

Direct and indirect conflict of interest must be declared by WDC members as follows:

- A. The member notifies the entity letting the contract, in writing, of the member’s potential conflict of interest;
- B. The entity letting the contract records this notice from the member along with its reasons why the contract award is in the public’s best interest;
- C. A copy of the members notices to the entity letting the contract, and a copy of the entities statement of reasons for awarding the contract, are both sent to the council to which the member belongs.

Potential direct or indirect conflicts of interest must also be declared, including any reasonable likelihood that the WDC members or their immediate family, or the organization for which they work on or whose board they sit will obtain a financial interest in, or will work for or will sell $25,000 annually or more in goods or services to the potential WDC, excluding reimbursement to employers for OJT training expenses (due to the fact that On-The-Job Training agreements are available to any qualified employer in the Workforce Development Area and not competitively procured). Should any after-the-fact conflict arise, the WDC shall be immediately informed of both the conflict-of-interest situation and the circumstances which reasonably prevented advance declaration of the conflict of interest.

All conflict-of-interest requirements apply alike to full WDC and to WDC Committee meetings, and to all other WDC procurement and contract management processes. Minutes of WDC meetings and procurement files must show all conflict declarations.

3. Voting

WDC Members who have a potential direct or indirect conflict of interest must abstain from voting after declaring the conflict. Minutes of all WDC meetings must show all abstentions. No WDC member with a direct conflict of interest will vote. Those with a direct conflict will have resigned from or taken a leave of absence from the WDC.

4. Participation

WDC members must refrain from participating in all stages of the procurement process, or in the execution or operation of resultant contracts, if they have a direct or indirect conflict of interest. Proscribed participation includes:

- A. Participating in the Local Area planning process to the extent of advocating that a certain service be provided or procured, or that certain language be adopted which is likely to result in a contract for that WDC member or their immediate family, or any for-profit, non-profit, or public entity which they represent, work for, or for which they hold a Board seat. Merely voting on the Local Area Plan does not constitute a conflict of interest;
- B. Drafting, reviewing, or approving a procurement instrument which the WDC member or their immediate family, or any entity they represent intends to or does in fact respond to by submitting a bid or proposal;
- C. Participating in the provider selection process, including voting on, scoring, or commenting on the bid or proposal which creates the conflict, or voting on or commenting on a rival proposal. A rival proposal is one which competes for the same funding as the proposal which creates the conflict situation. For example, voting on a youth proposal is permissible if the WDC member has an in-direct conflict of interest due to a proposal which only seeks WIOA adult funding;
- D. Negotiating, executing, signing, monitoring, or resolving any contract dispute in which the WDC member or their immediate family has a direct or indirect conflict of interest;
- E. Attempting to influence a funding decision by lobbying for or advocating for acceptance of a proposal or bid in which that WDC member or their immediate family has a direct or indirect conflict of interest.

5. Appearance of a Conflict of Interest

All WDC members shall avoid the appearance of a conflict of interest. To this end, no WDC member shall have an ongoing direct conflict of interest.

Prospective WDC members shall declare all potential direct and indirect conflict of interest situations prior to WDC appointment. Declaration shall be to both the appointing authority and to the WDC itself.
